DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 87-91,95-114,154-165,167 and 169 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Both claims 87 and 106 include limitations to a second end of an element being bonded to a structurally distinct contact tip. In light of figure 10 of the instant application, Examiner has interpreted this limitation as the bonding of one resilient element to the tip structure of another element, for only in this light could the tip structure be truly "structurally distinct". Again, Examiner acknowledges that this is indeed disclosed by Applicants in figure 10. Therefore, it is the Examiner's position that this limitation, in conjunction with the other claimed limitations was neither found to be disclosed in, nor suggested by the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Response to Arguments

Examiner notes that while persuaded by Applicants' argument that the Kanji reference (US 5,067,007) fails to display the limitation of the bonding of two tip structures together, it is clear that Kanji shows an element with a freestanding end. This freestanding end is not, however, connected to another contact tip structure as interpreted above. Therefore this argument is moot.
